

TENNESSEE GENERAL ASSEMBLY
FISCAL REVIEW COMMITTEE

FISCAL MEMORANDUM

HB 549 - SB 715

March 27, 2023

SUMMARY OF BILL AS AMENDED (006584): Exempts a governing board of a public institution of higher education from the Uniform Administrative Procedures Act in regard to promulgating rules for its traffic and parking regulations unless the traffic or parking regulation authorizes the charging of a fine or citation.

FISCAL IMPACT OF BILL AS AMENDED:

NOT SIGNIFICANT

Assumptions for the bill as amended:

- This legislation does not make any changes to Tenn. Code. Ann. § 49-8-203(a)(1)(D), which states each state university board and the board of regents has the power to establish policies and regulations regarding the campus life of the institutions, including, but not limited to, the conduct of students, student housing, parking, and safety.
- Exempting each public institution of higher education from the Uniform Administrative Procedures Act in regard to traffic and parking regulations, as long as such regulations do not authorize charging of fines or citations, will not result in a significant fiscal impact to state or local government.
